More people in Scotland voted to leave the EU than voted for the SNP, yet the SNP thinks it's okay to fly the blue rag.

So, no, you don't want what people voted for

The signatures of the 16 masks in schools letter is the most [illegible] thing you've ever seen.

Over 150 teachers, medics, academics and celebrities have today joined forces to write to the Education Secretary imploring him not to recommend that children have to wear masks in classroom when schools return on Monday, calling them a "huge confusing, and potentially harmful, impediment in the way of teachers"

Signatories include.

You're confusing separate issues. The original tweet was about mandatory or coerced vaccination. If you support that you are a terrible human being.

You just mentioned personal responsibility - that is what I am an advocate for. Ultimately it should be an individual choice.

Not one died of or with COVID

Same with supermarket workers

Strange that.

METROPOLITAN POLICE

Freedom of Information Request Reference No: 01.FOI.20.014369

I note you seek access to the following information.

How many police officers have died in the frontline in England, Scotland and Wales due to Coronavirus this year. This can be statistics provided in a table format and should include a category for ethnicity

What steps has the Commissioner of the Met Police put in place to protect police officers in the frontline?

DECISION

I have today decided to disclose the located information to you in full.

Please find below information pursuant to your request above

How many police officers have died in the frontline in England, Scotland and Wales due to Coronavirus this year. This can be statistics provided in a table format and should include a category for ethnicity.

Please note that this response is in relation to MPS officers only. we do not hold data for the whole of the UK

I have been advised that there have been no deaths of frontline officers in relation to the coronavirus.

Great idea. As long as there are no vax passports or tests required.

A domestic digital vaccine permit could easily be used to:

• Restrict access to services.
• Limit no. of check-ins to shops/pubs/restaurants.
• Track movements.
• Limit drinks purchases at pubs/bars.
• + much more.

John Burn-Murdoch @jburnmurdoch

NEW: we've all seen the pandemic's impact on death rates, but what of the other end of the spectrum: birth rates?

I've not really posted about the vaccines being unsafe - my point has been that we just don't know yet and so it's wise to wait.

BUT I've now seen a few too many of these articles to not start seriously questioning safety.

I'd also like to add, which I didn't think to in the initial tweet, is that this refers to cisgender men. The violence against men outside of being Cis/Straight/White (marginalised) is a very different picture. Just wanted to add that to this discourse!

Incorrect. A much higher proportion is black violent crime.

Politicians keep saying we owe a debt to our nurses. I really don't. I pay their wages & receive a pre-agreed service in return. If anything I've paid more than the value of service I've received, so perhaps they owe me a debt? But I'm happy to write it off.

I know Clapham/Brixton well. As a man I would not be walking by myself at 9pm. That's not 'victim blaming' - it's me saying there are obvious safety issues and always have been.

The issue? Some people are mental/evil - that will always be the case. We all have to live with that.

IF you supported @BorisJohnson and his Covid fascist regime crushing the right to peacefully protest, assemble and express yourself, you don't get to complain now that one of protests such as a peaceful vigil is banned.

This is what a dictatorship looks like.

No, this is when immature young people who have no concept of right and wrong or any respect for the victim and her family, need to grow up. Clearly a planned anti police protest rather than a respectful silent vigil. They must be very proud of themselves

They might have interpreted it correctly but some respect for the purpose and the sad loss of Ms Everard should allow them to make a common sense judgement as did Sunak & Khan show no respect for the murder that instigated this and I'm not a fan of lock downs per say in this situation

The @MPFed saying it as it is. Although the police have been sh*t over the past year, it's @UKParliament that pass the laws. The police are being criticised by MPs for enforcing the laws they themselves supported. Laws that are unjust & inhumane.

#metpolice #COVID19 @pritipatel

Federation statement

Ken Marsh, Chairman of the Metropolitan Police Federation said: "26 Metropolitan Police officers were assaulted – punched, kicked, spat at – yesterday policing Covid-19 lockdown laws that a democratically elected Government have imposed .. laws that the Mayor of London has called on us to enforce to keep Londoners safe.

"Now colleagues are being condemned by politicians of all parties for doing what we have been asked to do by politicians on behalf of society. This is not right or fair. Damned if we do. Damned if we don't. Are we supposed to enforce Covid-19 Regulations or not?

"Political leaders should be doing much more to support the police officers they have put in

Sensible people will recognise the risk if you yourself have been vaccinated is vanishingly small.

It will be a minuscule cross section of people who are:

- Exposed.
- Contract the virus after being vaccinated.
- Develop symptoms at all.
- Develop serious disease.

Trying to work out whether the Boris fans supporting the Police & Crime Bill are doing so because of a low IQ and misguided desire to 'own the leftists' or because they themselves are authoritarians.

Further restrictions on rights to assembly are an affront to #Liberty.

While I'm not suggesting Bill Burr is a racist, a white man having a non-white wife can sometimes be a sign of racism. So you shouldn't assume someone isn't racist just because they own a minority sex servant. They may very well have one because they're racist.

This is one of the weirder things @JoeBiden has done. And probably some of the worst green screening I've seen.

Hint: watch his hands with the microphones.

Largely because some areas of the UK resemble ghettoes where one can't go. The UK has had a 'Christian' heritage for centuries (with all its flaws). Islam is not compatible with this, and in no way compatible with evangelical Christianity

You've demonstrated no such thing. Forget the stats, just explain why the lockdowns resulted in the dramatic fall in the U.K.! Leave Sweden out of it! Smaller population, different demographics and culture.

Because almost every viral outbreak in the history of man has followed a bell curve. Look it up.

The reason I referenced Sweden is because they have exactly the same curves but with no lockdowns. I'm sorry if that's confusing for you.

#BBC report that "60 MPs have called on the Home Office to change laws" on people being allowed to gather for protests despite #Covid restrictions

That means that 590 MPs have not.

Sweden and Florida have also taken a range of measures to slow the spread of #COVID19, and neither can be compared to countries that are major hubs have high population densities, and have high obesity levels. All the major economies use lockdowns because they work.

Your argument so far is false correlation. Is that it?

Here:

"In conclusion, using current data,
~98% of the comparisons using 87 different regions of the world we found no evidence that the number of deaths/million is reduced by staying at home."

Again this uses selective 'evidence' You cite Sweden but not Hungary when both used a similar rationale. The Covid19 death numbers for Sweden are not good at more than 1350 per million pop but Hungary are even higher than the UK. Lockdowns work!

So, to summarise, your argument is a false correlation one, you're not interested in academic studies, and you put nothing else forward.

In science the variables being tested have to be the same or we can never know why or if there is any significance in the results. When investigating whether lockdowns work we must compare 'lockdowns' not countries!

Today the @metpoliceuk will probably use Government-backed violence against citizens for simply gathering with others to peacefully protest.

Then will follow smears that protesters were ‘anti-vaxxers’, with the unsavoury actions of a few amplified.

People protesting about restrictions but bringing another spike which will result in more restrictions. Where is the police now? Not enough women with flowers?

Thousands of people in London exercising their right to assemble and protest. Liberty should not be taken for granted.

Your comment is just a reflection of a selfish, self-centred attitude. Thousands gathering for a protest equals more infections, more lockdowns & more hardship for the average person. The police have enough to do, the protesters are just a bunch of privileged left wingers & anarchists twitter.com/NewtonClarkeJK

Seasonality and the fact almost every viral outbreak in the history of man has followed natural bell curves.

If you're attempting to draw a correlation argument you'll need to explain why Sweden follows the same pattern and Florida (no lockdown) vs California (lockdown).

What's clear after yesterday:

• The UK media are actively misleading the public, with little coverage & @SkyNews reporting 'hundreds' of protestors.

• @YouGov have been publishing fraudulent polling in order to shape public perception.

Today it's revealed that NHS staff worked more than 1,000,000 hours of unpaid overtime during the pandemic.

Now Boris Johnson wants to cut their pay

It's a disgraceful way to treat NHS workers.

They deserve a proper pay rise #NHSPay15

To be honest I usually drive to Europe for my holidays anyway, but I also don't see that flights will be an issue for long. All it will take is one airline to say no vaccine. It's inevitable. Especially for airlines that are struggling.

I don't know how many times we have to go through this process. Johnson promises your freedom back in return for your compliance and then moves the goalposts... again.

It's not his freedom to withhold... and you only get it back when you take it back.

We would have been opponents then.

Now I support no political party.

And will unite with any awakened person, who sees this Globalist agenda.

We must embrace the change in UK politics.

There is no left right divide anymore.

Just freedom fighters united against tyranny

Europe is losing control of the virus.

If high EU transmission rates generate a new vaccine resistant variant and it hops over the channel then we're back to square one

I'd take closed borders and internal freedom over another year of lockdown restrictions any day of the week.

I could spend the evening tweeting all my objections to what Johnson has said today, but I can't really be bothered if I'm honest, so I'll just sum it up with this:

Johnson is a tw*t.

Really? It s total bu sh t

The death stats are pure fiction deaths for ANY REASON within 28 days of a positive test isn t death of covid They could have died of anything

The cases are based off an oversensitive PCR test run on excessive cycles

It's a scamdemic

Even if I was having the vaccine I certainly wouldn't comply with any requirement for certification anywhere in the UK. Utterly abhorrent and an affront to #liberty.

Going along with this will cause irreparable damage to our society.

Anyone who still thinks the Government's roadmap will bring an end to this is utterly deluded.

Six more months of draconian powers over your life. And it'll be six more months after that.

This ends when enough of us say no... that's always been the case.

How can the European Union not understand this very simple fact?

EU have NOT exported a single vaccine, the pharmaceutical companies have because they've signed contracts to that effect.

I'm sick of hearing about the EU exporting vaccines as if they've done us a favour

If you want to know where this is going, look at China.

Do you want to live in a fully-tracked surveillance state? That's where we are heading.

Footage of @ASPolice violently assaulting seated protestors with hard-edged riot shields in #Bristol.

The tyranny of human rights violations by our Gov means this'll become commonplace. Sometimes you'll agree with the protestors, sometimes you won't.

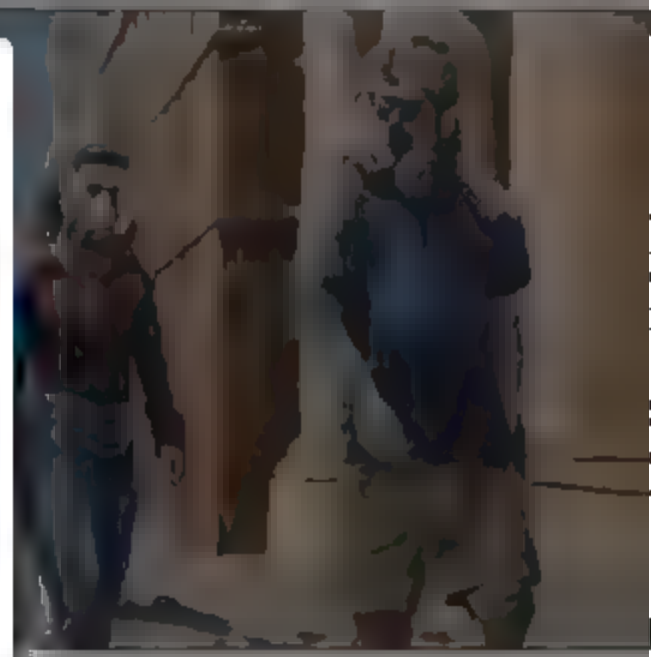
I've upset some this morning with my tweet about the #Bristol protests.

If someone attacks a police officer they should be appropriately apprehended.

But I'll always defend the right to protest, even for my opponents. It's fundamental to #liberty.



Protest is currently illegal.

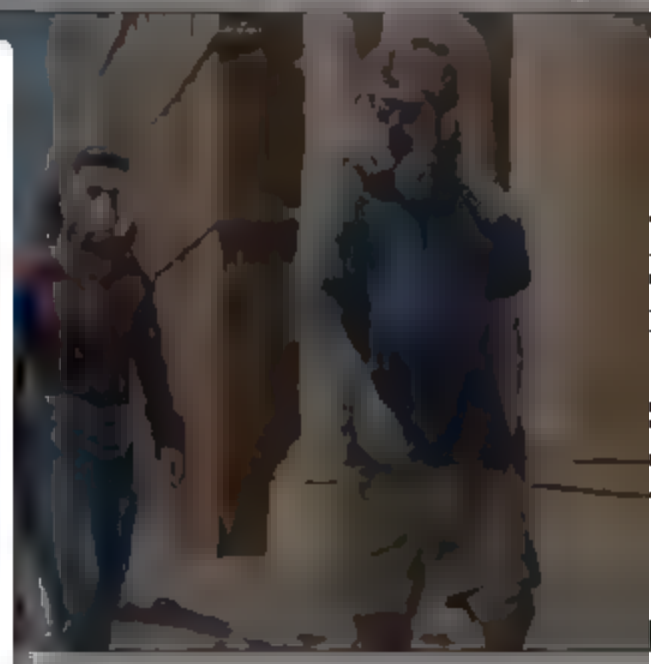
Today in most parts of England it was around 20° & sunny, and by all accounts the parks and seafronts were absolutely rammed, with very few masks and zero social distancing...



Do you really think the Government will be able to enforce #VaccinePassports when zero sh*ts are given?

I listened to this live. Julia asking the most basic question, and one you'd expect an answer to given that it's vital to the Government's (insane) strategy.

This Gov has no intention of fully returning your freedoms.

There needs to be an inquiry into polling companies using fraudulent polls to shape public perception, and to what extent the Government is complicit.

There's zero chance this poll is accurate.

I can't even begin to enter the mind of someone who proudly declares they have 'zero issues' with the erosion of liberty, the violation of privacy, the introduction of a 'papers please' culture, the framework for a Chinese-style social credit system...

try borrowing a book from "Chinese style" British library or enter a private gym or buy a drink when maybe you look under 18. All of them , and many more require you to produce your papers try Hiring a car w/o papers paperwork isn't your issue, you just think COVID is a hoax

This seems significant. If @UKLabour oppose #VaccinePassports, as well as @LibDems, it would probably only take a Tory rebellion a little larger than what we've already seen to defeat anything put forward by the Government. And this is a much tougher sell.

Measures such as wearing face masks and socially distancing from others should "increase in strength" as lockdowns are lifted to keep coronavirus under control, scientists have said. Do you think face mask and distancing rules should get stricter when lockdown ends? #Lockdown

There is absolutely no doubt that @YouGov - founded by the UK 'Vaccine Minister' @nadhimzahawi - is involved in publishing fraudulent polls in order to shape public perception.

YouGov must be included in the criminal inquiry.

YouGov @YouGov

Keir Starmer has said using vaccine passports domestically could go against the "British instinct". The majority of Britons (58%), however, are in support of using them during the vaccine rollout. This rises to 70% for them being used after the rollout

This Easter weekend, please remember that outdoors is generally much safer than indoors.

If you're in England and seeing friends and family outside, keep to groups of up to six people or two households.

Let's keep each other safe as we continue with the vaccination rollout.

Anyone who thinks Johnson has ruled out domestic vaccine passports is going to be in for a shock.

He's a slimy authoritarian lunatic.

I am baffled by the opposition to vaccine passports. We do not compel people to get vaccinated. Rightly. But any individual who chooses not to get vaccinated poses a risk to the health of others in enclosed public spaces. Actions have consequences.

How long until we see two distinct & separate cultures emerge?

One with masks, low physical contact, no handshakes & certification to access some places.

One with the understanding that we carry on as normal & meet with like-minded people in newly established places.

Gooch is slang for the perineum, or the area between the anus and genitals, usually on a man. It can also occasionally be found as slang for "excellent" or "awesome" in the Laguna Beach area of Southern California.

They can insist on health permits. I will opt out.

They can restrict my access to services. I'll cope.

They can confiscate my assets and withhold my money. I'll live in the woods and hunt.

I'm willing to go the whole way. I'll never submit.

In just one year we have recruited almost 9,000 of the 20,000 additional police officers we promised.

That means more police officers in your community cutting crime and going after criminals - helping us build back safer from the pandemic.

To consider for #Elections2021 next week:

• Don't vote for parties that abused you for the past year

• Don't just vote CON through fear of LAB & vice versa

• Don't vote for 'the least worst option'

• If options are poor, spoil your ballot - don't register support for sh*t

"Conservatives are the least worst option" is why we keep getting sh*t Governments.

Every time we vote for them - even when they are totally sh*t - they just think to themselves "Great - all we need to do is be not quite as sh*t as Labour".

Just stop 🚫

"allowed"

Meetings between fully vaccinated people are "incredibly safe", the country's deputy chief medical officer has said amid growing calls for those who have had the jab to be allowed to hug loved ones.

Prof Jonathan Van-Tam said he was "highly confident scientifically" that there were no risks if two people who had received both jabs met up at least two weeks after their second dose – but he urged the public not to do so yet.

Australians face $66K fine and jail time if they fly home from India during COVID-19 travel ban

The Federal Government published a press release in the early hours of Saturday morning announcing harsh penalties for Australian citizens who attempt to fly home from India, where more than 300,000 new COVID-19 cases have been reported each day this past week. The temporary ban begins on May 3 and applies to any travellers who have visited India in the 14 days preceding the date they intend to arrive in Australia. Citizens who fail to comply face a $66,000 fine and up to five years of jail time. It is thought to be the first time the Federal Government has made entering Australia a criminal offence to its own citizens.

Wish these morons would actually explain what freedoms are lost by wearing a mask for 10 mins in a shop and living a VERY soft lockdown in a 1st World country? (And no, getting shitfaced in a pub or coughing spit all over fellow shoppers does NOT count). Answers on a postcard

I suggest people print this off, laminate if possible, its from the gov.uk website, if you are stopped by anyone, police, security people shop workers or some self appointed Joe Public dickhead then show them this and then politely walk past them

Exemption cards

If you have an age, health or disability reason for not wearing a face covering:

- you do not routinely need to show any written evidence of this
- you do not need show an exemption card

This means that you do not need to seek advice or request a letter from a medical professional about your reason for not wearing a face covering.

However, some people may feel more comfortable showing something that says they do not have to wear a face covering. This could be in the form of an exemption card, badge or even a home-made sign.

> Carrying an exemption card or badge is a personal choice and is not required by law.

Techs mates
I'm running an old PC with Vista (yes, I know) using once in a blue moon
Looking to retain some functionality without updating RAM & New hard drive, & having to clean install Windows 10.

Any thoughts on Ubuntu instead for this?

Covid killed my grandad so I m glad both parties supported measures which spared thousands the pain of losing a loved one in such a cruel way

I'm sorry to her about your grandad.

Would love to see the evidence showing that the draconian measures put in place actually saved lives. I could show you evidence of it costing lives if you like?

Here is Latifah King, 27, who died as a direct consequence of Government measures. She is not alone. In 2020 there were 4.4 million cancer scans missed.

Would love to see your evidence that the NHS would have been 'swarmed' were it not for lockdowns.

I'll get you imperical evidence but whilst I'm sourcing it I'll ask you this.

If we had a free for all during the heigh of the pandemic where do you think all the sick people would have went? As we both know deep down that cases would have increased

What happened to that lady was sad but that was down to the hosptial taking the decision not to see her

Many hospitals were seeing patients and also I have to repeat.

What do you think would have happened if lockdown hadn't happened and the nhs had to deal with more cases?

I'm sure today, as usual, millions of people on the right have voted CON through fear of LAB & vice versa for the left.

I've been a defender of FPTP but I'm now becoming more convinced the only real way this horribly depressing cycle is broken is by moving to PR.

Labour only have themselves to blame for their catastrophic election performance.

This is what happens when you spend the past year offering zero opposition at the precise moment the British people needed you to offer opposition.

The lowest turnout in a general election was recorded in 1918 at 57.2%, due to the end of the First World War. By-elections are a mixed bag, but many show turnouts in the 50s. The fact still remains that the Conservatives gained the support of just 22.08% of the electorate.

I hate this sort of brag. Some of us hate masks but are required to wear them for our jobs or for access to our workplace or because our employers would sack us if we broke the law. It's not people being weak or scared, they just have bills to pay and need a job.

The fact that the Government would even be considering further lockdowns shows you what the future looks like...

The Government now thinks it owns your freedom and can take it away whenever it likes...

The only way out is civil disobedience.

Johnson claims he doesn't want to remove your freedoms but he has no choice and it's for the 'collective good'...

...which is also what Stalin was thinking when he had no choice but to murder 60 million people.

Fine. Any ideological framework that calls for the death of others is well worth criticism. Not sure I've seen that in Judaism or Christianity though, but happy to be corrected.

So what do you mean this s what we're importing? The accent suggest the person may have very well been born in this country, so you're attacking immigrants in general. Why d d you tag Islam n your hateful tripe? You're not fooling anyone, poor attempt

They need us to turn on each other. Will you allow them to succeed?

Yesterday, my year 9s and I were having a conversation about racism, as part of our Diverse Voices unit. Does anybody have something that I could read to them to help explain why being racist to a white person is not really something that can be done?

Okay, following my last tweet, I think this one might help me to learn more.

Can you be racist towards a white person? Discuss.
My argument would be that you can't. But I'm open to debate and really would like to learn more

This 44 year old mother, who I understand was healthy, was driven to receive a vaccine she didn't need by Government & media fear propaganda.

The vaccine killed her. Pointless death.

If you go for the #vaccine, you'll be having annual boosters for the rest of your life to cover mutations.

Whether variants develop amongst the unvaccinated is, therefore, of no relevance to you, as your annual jab will cover it.

Now mind your own f*cking business.

How's that working out for him?

#COVID19 #Vaccine #Authoritarianism

hitchensblog.mailonsunday.co.uk/2021/02/peter- …

So sorry, Your Majesty, but I have had my first Covid vaccination for wholly selfish reasons. I did not do it for the good of others but for my own convenience. And I will have my second for the same purpose.

A very important part of my family now lives abroad and I am deeply tired of not being able to see them. I get the strong sense that any sort of travel, and plenty of other things, will be impossible if I don't have the necessary vaccine certificate.

The target, apparently, is to identify a vaccine-resistant variant and then develop a new vaccine ready to use, all within 100 days.

Imagine how many vaccines these people are going to be pumping into themselves...

Does anyone actually believe this sh*t? 😂

I literally don't know one single person who wants this sh*tshow extended, and I know a lot of different people.

I'm calling BS, @YouGov.

#COVID19 #COVID1984 #Lockdown

YouGov @YouGov

71% of English adults support delaying the lifting of lockdown by four weeks. 24% are opposed, with opposition highest among 18-24 year olds (34%)

The year is 2024. Scientists & politicians admit huge mistakes were made with the vaccine. Birth rates collapse across the globe leading to concerns for future productivity. A new, automated future awaits.

This tweet is not fact, or advice, but rather a 'scenario'

Imagine being someone who backed this authoritarian lunatic all the way... can anyone seriously back him now as he sets out plans for the destruction of our society?

It is a basic principle of life and liberty that all authority should be questioned.

Unfortunately swathes of our fellow Brits simply weren't brought up knowing that. We are now suffering the consequences.

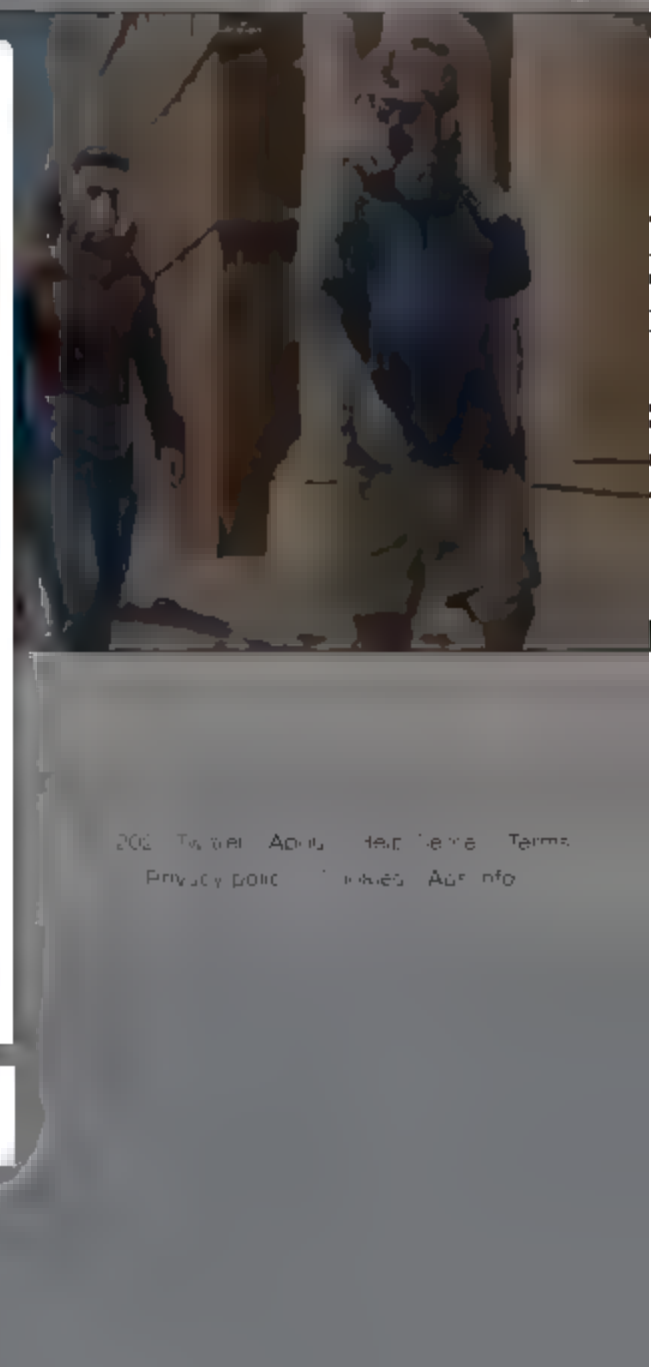
This isn't just about #COVID19.



We are looking at the collapse of Western civilisation and the inception of a new, globalist epoch.

There's nothing natural about it, and it's not an accident.

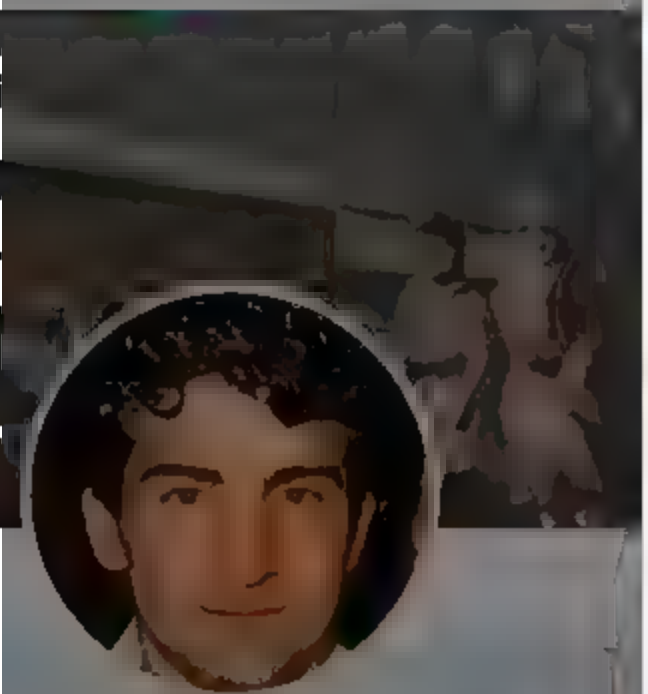
On Friday I met with three old school friends - all intelligent, successful, healthy men in their 30s.

When asked why they had a #vaccine they don't need, there was confusion and irritation. They accept nobody yet knows the long term effects.



This is a common story.

You'll need to ask the politicians who are making the decisions.

I am simply looking at the evidence.

Here is more evidence for you, this time from Munich University, specifically about the lockdown in Germany.

Still waiting for your evidence...

Rambo @ToryRambo th

For those of you defending Hancock, this isn't part san.

I've lost 3 friends to suicide during this pandemic, lives that could've been saved if I broke the rules and went to support them

Hancock was flouting the rules he created while the young paid the price

Suppose there was a virus with the exact side effect profile of the Pfizer vaccine, would you approve a vaccine with the exact side effect profile of Coronavirus itself to prevent teens from catching it?

If you wouldn't then you might just want to consider vaccinating teenagers.

What? That UK went from 1000 deaths a day to now less than 100 a week,with wales at zero almost every day surely that's evidence? at the "peak" we were getting more daily deaths than we have had in a month for the last 3+ month, that's evidence isn't it ?

So your argument is correlation?

Then you'll have to show evidence that it was lockdowns that caused the effect you claim, especially considering the evidence seems to show otherwise (below).

Correlation ≠ Causation

Seriously... do people believe this is all over on 19 July?

1. There are still going to be restrictions in place, including int'l travel and venues being allowed to discriminate in medical grounds.

2. Now they've done this once, they'll do it again.

There are reports this morning that people are turning off their contract tracing NHS app to avoid the risk of being pinged and told to self-isolate - including NHS staff

Have you deleted the app? What do you think of people who do?

Happy to help

The chancellor has given his strongest indication yet of ruling out a predicted 8% rise in the state pension next year.

Official forecasts suggest that the link with earnings growth could mean the bumper rise in the amount paid from April 2022.

Rishi Sunak told the BBC a decision on pensions would be "based on fairness for pensioners and for taxpayers".

Various commentators have called for an overhaul of the rules.

However, groups representing older people say the government's promises to pensioners should

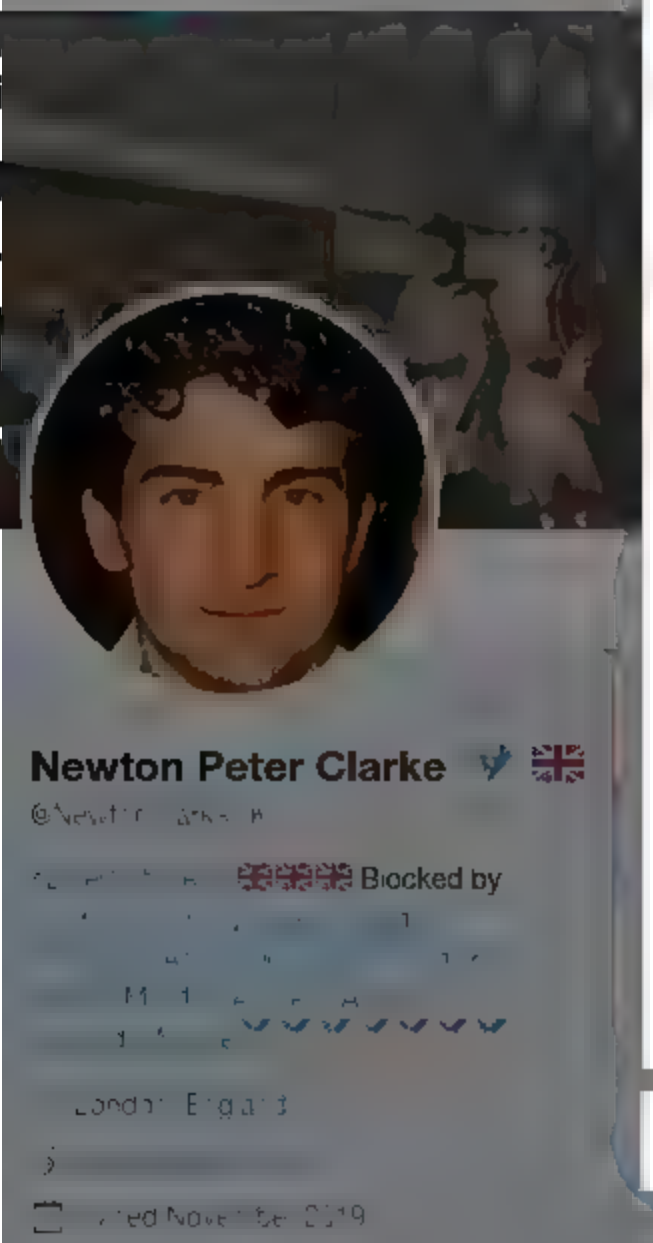
Weak & damaged people have found comfort in lockdowns and restrictions on their lives because:

1. It gives them the comforting illusion that they're being 'looked after'.



2. It gives them an excuse for not embracing life and taking personal responsibility.

Look, when there is actual racism we can all call it out together. How about we focus on the small number of actually racist incidents together rather than waste time creating myths of imaginary racism?

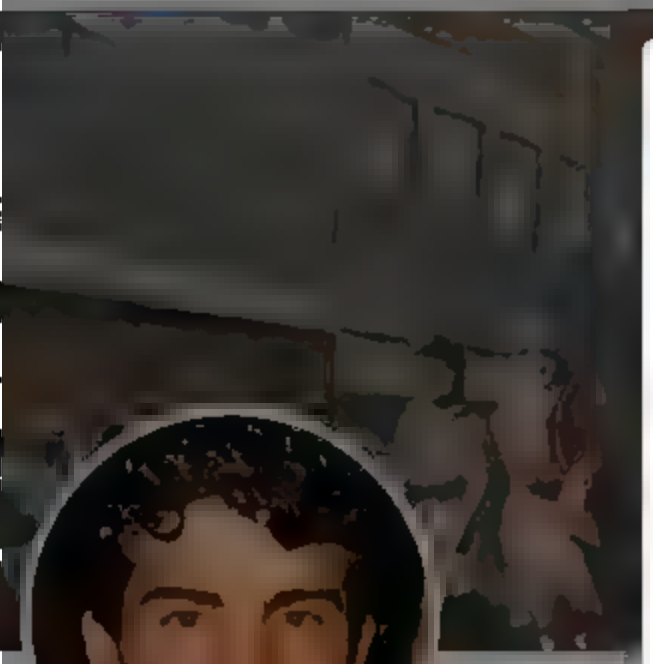
You are part of the problem. Smearing people you don't know with the label 'racist' does two things:



1. Gives actual racists a free ride.

2. Exposes you as a low IQ waster.

Whether or not I'm vaccinated, I absolutely refuse to participate in anything to do with Covid passes, even if that means I am seriously inconvenienced. The very idea of them is an appalling affront to liberty and I'll have no part in it.

Here we are at the final destination of the 'irreversible roadmap' and we still have restrictions in place.

Not long until further restrictions are reimposed.

@nadhimzahawi can you see why I & others are angry at Vaccine passports?
Especially when only days ago you told ME that they would be discriminatory if was on vaccine status only
Can you understand my position?
My horror?

Let's be clear: if you respect diverse gender identities & aim to use correct pronouns, then you would know that people with diverse genders/sexes can be pregnant inc Trans men, intersex people & gender nonconforming people. That isn't too hard for medical students to understand

The fact there's even a debate about vaccinating healthy kids when they're statistically more likely to die from the vaccine than the virus simply demonstrates how depraved our society's become.

They're literally going to sacrifice children to protect adults.

Maybe it’s to protect the whole population and those that know about these things consider t’s n the best interest of the majority.
So f it happens , it wil need to be reviewed in that light.

This won't age well.

All the data is for other strains besides delta.

Delta is incredibly infectious and intense because of how much viral load it produces

Lots and lots of kids are going to be harmed here

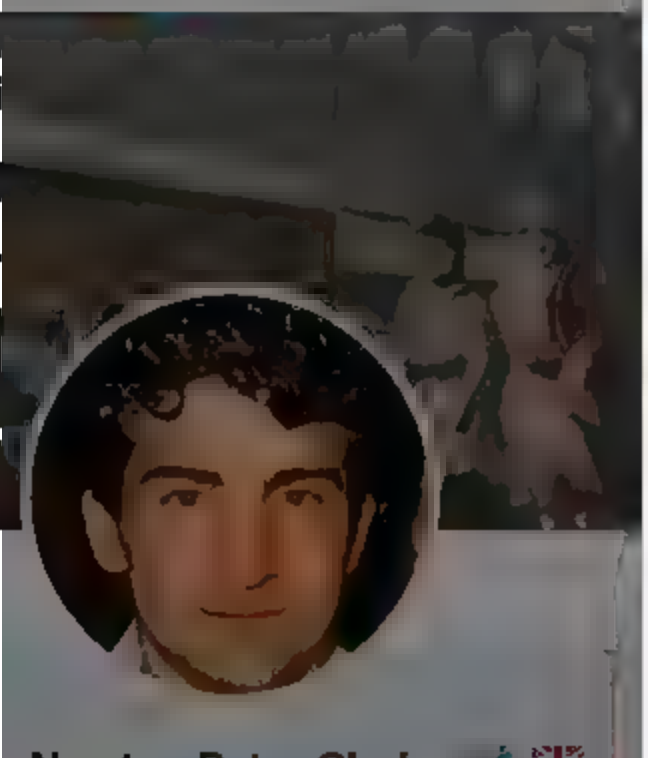
Sensible people with a brain wouldn't support either of those parties. Globalist authoritarians both with their own particular atrocities.



At this stage, given what's happened over the past 18 months, the 'Labour would be worse' argument is dead in the water.

I'm going to teach my kids the following:

- Socialism kills.
- BLM is a racist organisation.
- There are only two genders.
- The Gov doesn't own our freedom.
- White privilege is a myth.
- All authority should be questioned.

Suck it, leftists.

≈50 million died of Spanish Flu over a two year period. They didn't reshape society as a result. They just cracked on.

≈4 million have reportedly died of #COVID19 and now governments across the world are seeking to reshape society & change the way we live.

It doesn't add up.

Surely the only way 75,000 Taliban fighters have made such devastatingly quick progress against the 300,000-strong Afghan army is because a large number of the army are sympathetic to or defected to the Taliban.

This will be Biden's legacy.

Whatever you think of the Taliban their seemingly imminent victory is a historic defeat of colonialism and imperialism. This should be the main narrative of media around the world, rather than the red herrings about women's rights etc that we are being sold.

The Spanish flu went away on its own after 17 months.

But COVID19 variants get stronger and more contagious after vaccination reach very high levels?

Can anyone offer an explanation?

A family member of a friend had the @pfizer vaccine on Saturday. Her boyfriend found her conscious but with no use of her body in the early hours of the morning. Now she's in hospital, paralysed, and in significant pain.

You cool with that @nadhimzahawi?

After posting about someone who was paralysed a few hours after receiving the @pfizer vaccine, I'm now waist deep in bot accounts.

Someone, somewhere, is desperate to control the narrative around these vaccines. That should cause concern.

It's a simple question and you keep dodging it. It's looking bad on you, and like I said, I was authoritarian so I know what authoritarianism, and I'd disagree. Just answer the damn question and stop dodging it

More than 40 arrests thus far, more than 100s PINS issued to Sydney protesters who gathered in the CBD. Road blocks remain in place with tens of 1000s of cars checked. Those numbers are expected to rise @7NewsSydney

The only way the coronavirus narrative holds together is if you ignore observable reality.

Unfortunately it seems there are multitudes of people, through either idiocy or apathy, who are willing to do just that.

Who knew that @spikedonline is a 'resurrected' version of Living Marxism - the journal of the British Revolutionary Communist Party?

Some of those dodgy Brendan O'Neill articles now make a bit more sense, hey?

#Communism #Spiked #COVID19

> Living Marxism (LM) was a British magazine originally launched in 1988 as the journal of the British Revolutionary Communist Party (RCP). It was later rebranded as LM in 1992 and ceased publication in March 2000 following a successful libel lawsuit brought by ITN.[1][2] It was promptly resurrected as Spiked, an Internet magazine.

Why would you not detain someone knowingly Covid positive who has absconded into the community and is a danger to public health?
Grow up He knew the law
7news.com.au/lifestyle/hea

A Sydney man will remain behind bars for at least another month after allegedly fleeing quarantine while COVID-positive and spending time in the community

Anthony Karam, 27, was on Friday morning charged with 13 offences related to the breach of public health orders amid NSW's COVID-19 lockdown

Karam earlier this month tested positive to COVID-19 but allegedly failed to isolate and disappeared, prompting a warrant for his arrest.

So your argument is that if something is law then it's ok? Pretty sure there have been some horrific laws throughout human history. You sure you're standing on that one?

mRNA vaccines are a problem, so I'm intrigued to know whether those of us who haven't had the vaccine would consider receiving a conventional coronavirus vaccine using a dead or live SARS-CoV-2 virus.

I tested positive for SARS-COV2 today. It's my second time having it. And I'm double-vaccinated

I got it at a kid's birthday party. Or from my kids' school. Or on an airplane.

I actually don't really know or care, and nobody is to blame for it, including me. 1/

The state of @benjamincutter in this clip. The guy's an absolute clown, of course stories about people who die after "refusing the vaccine" are orchestrated

People who take the vaccine also die, where are those stories?

Covid passes:

■ Are ineffective at cutting transmission and thus anti-science.

■ Are likely to entrench the 'vaccine hesitant' and thus won't boost uptake (according to research out today).

So... remind me, why is @BorisJohnson pursuing this policy?

This Government is inviting darkness.

- Excluding people from society.
- Extension of ‘emergency’ coronavirus powers.
- Threat of school closures.
- Job losses.

It’s just fact that at some point someone will break in a very serious way.

A great perspective on how we can all collaborate on #NetZero ambitions and avoid a polarising debate. And I agree the key to this will be making sure that transitions to a sustainable diet are based on informed choices & take care of our nation's #farmers

So Sweden followed the herd immunity science we didn't have the balls to and things are still looking great.

1 death per day in Sweden and a functioning economy, no debt, no backlog and no destroyed education

It's not too late for us to allow nature to just fix this for us

Anybody who watched MASH know this is triage For those who don't know what it is, it's when demand for treatment exceeds the amount available you need to make choices on best use of those resources

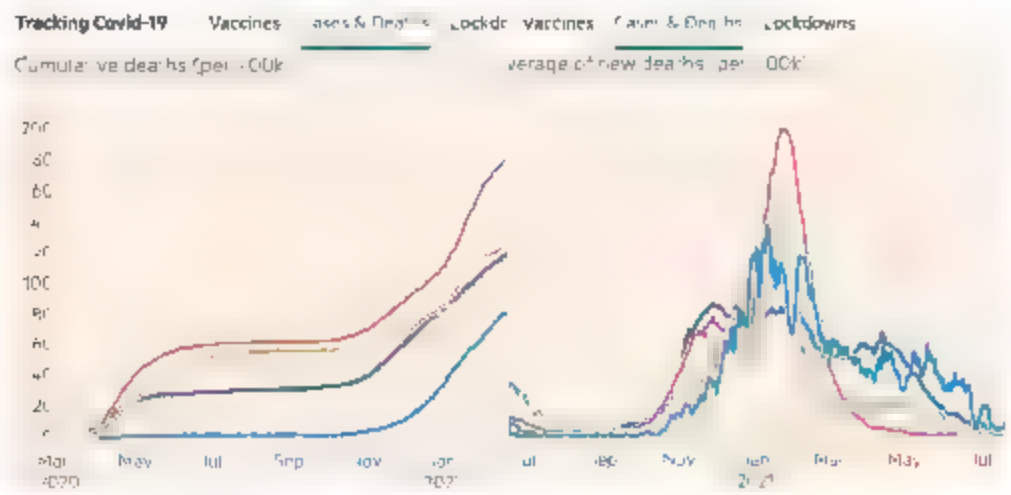
Let's assume for a moment pop. density is the most relevant factor. The country with the closest pop. density to Sweden is Latvia (who did lock down).



Latvia and Sweden have almost identical cumulative deaths and Sweden is currently in a better place.

This antivax troll account is calling for revenge for something which hasn't happened and might not.

Meanwhile, at least 25 kids in his country have died from the virus (probably more by now) he promotes. twitter.com/NewtonClarkeJK
